

IF YOU CAN READ THIS

you can help.

Share your knowledge. Be a volunteer.

1 out of 6 adults in Hawaii has difficulty in reading
Share YOUR ability by volunteering to help them to read and write

COME LEARN MORE ABOUT THE ADULT LITERACY PROGRAM

Each training begins with a 1-hour Orientation to the Adult Literacy program

The orientation introduces you to the challenges of living without literacy, discusses the tutor training, and explains what is expected of you as a volunteer tutor.

Jan. 8, 2012 (Sun.) 1-2pm

Island Pacific Academy, 909 Haumea Street, Kapolei (near Library)

Feb. 11, 2012 (Sat.) 8:30-9:30

Aloha United Way Bldg. 200 N. Vineyard Blvd.

If you remain interested in becoming a tutor, the first session of the 4-day training begins immediately after the orientation.

Jan. 8, 15, 22, Feb. 5, 2012 (Sun.) 1-5pm

Island Pacific Academy, 909 Haumea St., Kapolei (near Library)

Feb. 11, 18, 25, Mar. 10, 2012 (Sat.) 8:30-12:30

Aloha United Way Bldg. 200 N. Vineyard Blvd

(TRAINING IS 16 HOURS LONG AND ALL SESSIONS ARE REQUIRED FOR CERTIFICATION)
(Trainings are usually held monthly – call for future dates and locations)

Call the office (537-6706) to reserve a space.

Hawaii Literacy provides free, one-to-one tutoring to adults so they can help their kids, get better jobs, and become more active and involved in their community.